Administrators Message

Couple of things, quick hitter style: Membership numbers are 605. Pretty good. Consider paying two or three years at a time. Can be done at mooseintl.org under "pay dues" button.

Better yet get a lifetime membership for a mere $1260 for newer members and gradually decreases with years accrued.

Signing up new members is easy to do, just ask around if you need assistance. We had a record 51 different people sponsor a member last year.

If you are a veteran, please let us know. You'll become a Moose Valued Veteran and get a cool camo membership card and more.

Those dues you pay help support our children at Mooseheart, our seniors at Moosehaven, Camp Ross, Oregon Moose Association projects, and much more.

On mooseintl.org you can look up your membership profile under "my membership record". It'll give you your whole moose bio including training, sponsors, payments, etc.

Please notify us (me) about new addresses, emails, and phone numbers. We get too much mail returned after someone has moved, for instance.

At our core we are a fraternal service organization, which means we get to help some folks. Here are some of those types of events in July:

We'll be open for another of Ken's rib feeds on Tuesday the 4th of July where Randi Reed will have fundraising raffles to benefit the Wounded Warriors Project.

Sam is hosting the 5th annual poker run to support veteran suicide awareness on 7/22. Incredible event that shouldn't be missed. Details inside.

Red Cross blood drive on 7/6. Only takes an hour or so. Next one after that is 8/31.

We had a special day on 6/2 when we had a prom in the back room for dozens of handicapped and disabled kids from local schools. Pretty cool event.

Scout Troop 606 meets here weekly. If you know a young boy or girl looking for a fun group, it's something to check out.

Our local pinochle group will have their ten-year anniversary here on 7/12. They play Tuesdays and Wednesdays if interested.

Bingo will be on 7/7 and 7/21 and some talented cribbage players battle it out on Wednesday evenings if you dare.

We had a car wash for kids' soccer and one for Troutdale Animal Services. Keep your eye out for more coming up.

July has the famous $1 sale, a high school reunion, memorials, a wedding reception, cribbage tournament, baby shower, meetings and more by the way.

These events helped us attain a superior rating for community service from Moose International for all four quarters last year. Rare and not that easy to do.

Joe Parker received his Pilgrim degree at Mooseheart last month. It's the pinnacle of Moose recognition and is well-deserved. We are so proud of him.

Joe's wife, Nancy, is battling away as we knew she would. I don't know much but I can't imagine her being taken away from us so I'm quite hopeful.

Don't forget about renting our back room for functions. We only rent to members and it's very affordable or often free. Stop by or call for particulars.

Lastly, please think of us as a resource to use. You give us a lot in terms of paying your dues, volunteering your time, and supporting us by buying food, drink, raffle items, etc. So, let us help you. For instance, do you need a walker or wheelchair? Borrow one from us. Maybe you need some tables and chairs for a BBQ or garage sale. Call your lodge. It's getting hot out there so swing by and fill up your cooler with some ice. If you need a place to hold a meeting for something think of your lodge. If we can't help someone else here might be able. Just know that we genuinely appreciate your support and want you to feel the same about us.

Thank You

Senior Regents Message

Wow, we are already into our 2nd month

Shout out to Jan Cooper, she stepped up and took our Mooseheart/Moosehaven chair (and I'm sure we will have Jean too, as these two ladies are the best two workers bees you could ask for. Thanks again Jan (Jean).

The Women's board is missing a couple of officers; we would love to have a Secretary and a senior Regent for the year (May 1, 2023 - April 30, 2024).

The Secretary position is very important, it also who helps the treasure and the person in charge (which is the Jr. Past Regent now)

The W.O.T.M. is trying to pick up a couple days of cooking a month. If you like to cook... Come talk to Judy or I and we will get you a date on the calendar for something delicious to cook.

Have a safe and stay cool summer. Hope to see you at the Lodge soon.

Thank You
Cathy Winegar
 Your Jr. Graduate Regent

FYI: Our next meeting is July 12th at 6pm

VOLUNTEERS OF THE MONTH
Jim & Christine Wright
